

Dear Sinclair Broadcasting,

I have recently learned of your plan to air a controversial "documentary" called Stolen Honor shortly before the upcoming election. I most strongly do not think that this is in the public interest and that you should not do it. The power of the media is huge and should be handled with good judgement and with no hidden agendas. If you do air the piece I think that you should follow it with a pro Kerry piece such as up river but really airing neither is the best solution. Thank you,
Leah George
